

In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious and The Most Merciful

Benefits of good deeds	Bad effects of sins
Sustenance is increased	Deprived of the light of inner knowledge
Blessings are increased	Decrease in sustenance
Problems go away	Uneasiness and remoteness from Allah
Daily tasks become easy	Uneasiness and remoteness from pious people
Pious and righteous life	Goals become difficult to achieve
Blessing in wealth and children	Darkness envelops in heart; eyes & face lose their luster
Protection from calamities	Weakness of heart and body
Respect and dignity	Deprived of good deeds
Increase in bounties through gratitude	Life span is shortened
Increase in wealth through charity	Resemblance to the enemies of Allah
Next generation and children will be benefitted	No value in the eyes of Allah
Good news prior to death	Corruption in thought and intellect
Angels bring good tidings at the time of death	Deserving of curse from the Prophet (SAW)
Help will come to ease daily tasks	Deprived of prayers from the Angels
Allah will take care of all his responsibilities	Mischief spreads over land and ocean
Saved from Allah's anger	Noble qualities of Haya (modesty) and dignity go away
Life span is prolonged	Greatness of Allah is removed from the heart
Needs are fulfilled	Bounties are taken away
Safety from illness, hunger and poverty	Abundance of calamities
Small amount will be blessed	Surrounded by devils
Worries go away	Heart loses peace and tranquility
Safety from magic and spells	Deprived of Kalimah* Tayyibah (faith) at the time of death
	Hopeless of Mercy from Allah

* La ilaha illal-laahu, Muhammad-ur Rasool-ullah [There is no one worthy of worship except Allah, and Muhammad (peace be upon him) is the Messenger of Allah]

Source: Jaza-ul-Aamaal, Shaykh Ashraf Ali Thanwi (RA). Some expressions were revised to convey better meaning in English.